The number and spacing of mounting beams varies, depending on scoreboard model number. See insert below for a special mounting situation.

Drill through cross angle where it meets the extension channel. Secure with 3/8" bolts, lockwashers, and nuts.

Attach mounting hardware on both sides of beam.

For a scoreboard that requires two horizontal angles across the front and has a beam in the center, assemble the center beam mounting hardware as shown above.